Responsible Internet Use – consent form KS1

We use the school computers and Internet connection for learning. These rules will help us be fair to others and keep everyone safe.

- I will ask permission before entering any Web site, unless my teacher has already approved that site.
- I will not bring floppy disks into school without permission.
- I will only email people my teacher has approved.
- The messages I send will be polite and sensible.
- When sending email, I will not give my home address or phone number or arrange to meet someone.
- I will ask permission before opening an email.
- I will not use internet chat rooms.
- If I see anything I am unhappy with or I do not like, I will tell a teacher immediately.
- I know the school will check my computer files and may monitor the Internet sites I visit.

The school may exercise its right by electronic means to monitor the use of the school's computer systems, including the monitoring of web sites, the interception of emails and deletion of inappropriate materials in circumstances where it believes unauthorised use of school's computer system is or may be taking place. Irresponsible use may result in the loss of Internet access.

Data Protection Act 2018: The school is registered under the Data Protection Act for holding personal data. The school has a duty to protect this information and to keep it up to date. The school is required to share some of the data with the Local Authority and with the DCSF. For further details, please see our Privacy Notice.
